This Air Force Instruction (AFI) implements Air Force Policy Directive 36-28, Awards and Decorations, establishing annual award programs for outstanding performance in: contracting, acquisition management, competition, and value engineering. It explains eligibility, nomination procedures and award selection criteria. It does not apply to Air National Guard units. Major commands (MAJCOM), field operating agencies (FOA), direct reporting units (DRU), the Air Force Secretariat, and Headquarters US Air Force ensure all organizations have the opportunity to nominate eligible units and individuals for awards as described in this instruction, forward nominees for competition at Air Force level, and arrange local recognition. Awards are presented annually for achievements during the previous year. Contracting, competition, and value engineering awards are based on fiscal year. The acquisition management team award is based on a calendar year. Selection panels may withhold an award due to lack of competition or when nominees' achievements are not considered deserving of Air Force recognition. Recipients of individual or team awards described in this instruction are authorized to wear the Air Force Recognition Ribbon (military) or the Air Force Recognition Lapel Pin (civilian).

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

This Instruction requires maintaining information protected by the Privacy Act of 1974 authorized by 10 U.S.C. 8013, 10 U.S.C. 857, and Executive Order 9397. Air Force Privacy Act system of records notice F900 AF MP A, Awards and Decorations, applies.

(AFSPC) The OPR for this supplement is HQ AFSPC/LGCM (Ms. Margaret Gillam). This supplement implements and extends the guidance of Air Force Instruction (AFI) 36-2835, Annual Acquisition Awards Programs. The AFI is published word-for-word without editorial review. Air Force Space Command (AFSPC) supplemental material is indicated in bold face. This supplement describes AFSPC's procedures for use in conjunction with the basic AFI. It applies to HQ AFSPC and its subordinate units. This supplement establishes procedures and responsibilities establishing a team award to be titled “Outstanding Team Achievement in the Small Business Program” with new emphasis on partnering between AF contracting professionals and AF small business advocates. This HQ AFSPC/LGC-sponsored contracting award for small business achievement reinforces the idea that small business program success cannot happen without contracting support, participation and cooperation. The award nominee is limited to an acquisition team (but not entire units) which has done something special to increase small business participation in AF contracts. This supplement does not apply to Air Force Reserve Command nor Air National Guard units. Upon receipt of this integrated supplement, discard the Air Force basic publication.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This initial revision of AFI 36-2835 adds definitions of unit categories for the contracting awards in Chapter 1; recategorizes the awards in recategorizes the awards in Chapter 3 along with their types and criteria; adds reference to DRUs where previously omitted; clarifies evaluation criteria for all awards and prescribes written formats for nomination procedures in each category of award, stipulating use of the April 1995 version of AF Form 1206, Nomination for Award, with reverse side as appropriate; and reformats all tables to provide rule numbers with corresponding categories. All revisions in this instruction are marked with a | . Where a chapter has undergone major revision, the chapter heading is thus marked.

(AFSPC) This revision of AFI 36-2835 adds nomination procedures for the award, adds evaluation criteria and panel information, adds Rule 18 to Table 1.1 and Line 8 to Table 1.2 in Chapter 1. A bar (|) indicates a revision from the previous edition.

CONTRACTING AWARDS

1.1. Nomination Responsibilities and Procedures. MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs will submit nominations as identified in Table 1.1.

1.1. Wings submit nominations as identified in Table 1.1. (AFSPC).

1.2. Definitions of Unit Categories.

1.2.1. Operational. This category applies to base level operational contracting squadrons and divisions in Air Force Materiel Command and operational contracting squadrons and divisions in operational commands. An operational unit provides contractual support for base operations support or mission operations support.

1.2.2. Specialized. This category applies to (a) a buying office with a primary mission to provide unique support in other than operational, systems, or science and technology. Typically, the unit has a mission of command-wide or Air Force-wide support as opposed to supporting only one base, or has a mission to acquire non-standard supplies and services or special studies and analyses; (b) a non-buying activity that supports the contracting community, such as training centers; (c) a specialized unit may or may not be a contracting squadron; (d) for purposes of this instruction, a specialized flight within an operational unit is not considered a specialized unit.

1.2.2.1. SAF/AQCO designates units eligible to compete in this category and maintains a listing of all designated specialized units. To change designation, provide rationale to SAF/AQCO.

1.2.2.2. Specialized units submit nominations only in the specialized unit category.

1.2.3. Systems. This category applies to Integrated Weapon System Management (IWSM) (systems and logistics) support contracting at system program offices (SPO) and centers in Headquarters Air Force Materiel Command (HQ AFMC).

1.2.4. Science and Technology. This category applies to a unit whose primary mission is issuing and administering science and technology (6.1 basic research, 6.2 exploratory research, and 6.3A advanced research) contracts in direct support of a technical directorate in one of the four superlabs, i.e., Armstrong Laboratory, Phillips Laboratory, Rome Laboratory, Wright Laboratory, or Air Force Office of Scientific Research (AFOSR).

1.3. Nomination Procedures.

1.3. All units submit one nomination.

1.3.1. Individuals in specialized units performing strictly base contracting functions (operational functions) may be submitted for operational awards. Except under extraordinary circumstances, do not nominate an individual for the same award won within the previous five years.

1.3.2. Nomination package includes the front side only of one AF Form 1206, "Nomination for Award" (April 1995 version with reverse side), and a supplemental information page (see Figure 1.1 and Figure 1.2). Accompanying citation for each nomination may be submitted on an additional page. Submit any additional justification for the Secretary of the Air Force Professionalism in Contracting Award using the reverse side of the AF Form 1206. If a typewritten AF Form 1206 is submitted, minimum acceptable font size will be 10 pitch. Forward nominations to the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Contracting), Operational Contracting Division (SAF/AQCO), 1060 Air Force Pentagon, Washington DC, 20330-1060, by 20 January.

1.3.2. Forward nominations to the Command Quality Assurance Manager, HQ AFSPC/LGC, 150 Vandenberg St, Ste 1105, Peterson AFB CO 80914-4350 by 1 December.

1.3.3. (Added) Forward nominations for the Outstanding Team Achievement in the Small Business Program award to HQ AFSPC/LGC, 150 Vandenberg St., Ste 1105, Peterson AFB CO 80914-4350 at the same time all other contracting award nominations are submitted.

1.4. Evaluation Criteria and Panel. Criteria for each award are identified in Table 1.2. The evaluation panel consists of at least three senior officials from within the office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Contracting) and will be chaired by the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Contracting).

1.4. Evaluation criteria for the Outstanding Quality Assurance Specialist award is identified in Line 7 of Table 1.2. (AFSPC). The evaluation panel consists of HQ AFSPC/LGC personnel with the selecting official the Command Quality Assurance Manager and endorser the Command Contracting Division Chief. Evaluation criteria for the Outstanding Team Achievement in the Small Business Program award is identified in Line 8 of Table 1.2. The evaluation panel consists of HQ AFSPC/LGC personnel with the selecting official the Command Director of Small Business and Historically Black Colleges-Universities/Minority Institutions (HBCU/MI) Representative.

1.4.1. The Assistant Secretary (Acquisition) approves the Secretary of the Air Force Professionalism in Contracting Award. The panel approves all other award winners.

1.5. Award Presentation. The awards are normally presented in conjunction with the spring Worldwide Contracting Conference arranged by SAF/AQC.

1.5. The Command Quality Assurance Manager will present the award at the annual HQ AFSPC Quality Assurance Conference. The Command Director of Small Business and HBCU/MI Representative or Command Contracting Division Chief will present the award at the annual HQ AFSPC Contracting Conference.

1.6. Transportation. The award winners' organization will provide funding for transportation and accommodations when the awards are presented.

Signature and Date

Part III -- Proposed Award Citation (summary of accomplishments; may be on a separate page)

Example: This unit distinguished itself in its contribution to the success of Operations DESERT SHIELD and DESERT STORM. Especially noteworthy was the fielding of 14 specially modified Contingency Airfield Lighting Systems, the immediate procurement of over 5,300 Aircrew Eye and Respiratory Protection Systems, and the urgent purchase of 26 million dollars worth of chemical protective clothing. Innovative acquisition approaches initiated by this contracting office will set the standard for future source selections.

Example: (for Secretary of the Air Force Professionalism in Contracting Award) As an instructor and author of contracting articles published in professional magazines and journals, Ms. Smith has fostered the growth and development of others in our field. She is an accomplished contract negotiator with multi-service contracting experience. She achieved superior results on complex programs supporting vital Air Force programs.

Example: (for Other Individual Awards) Mr. Jones developed innovative ideas and contracting concepts, resolving long-standing problems affecting mission essential service contracts. He developed an innovative contract for altitude chamber testing that will save the Government $52,000 and 180 days of pilot down-time annually. In support of Operation DESERT STORM, he restructured contracts for critical services affected by government personnel deployments. The end result was continued excellent support of the Air Force mission.

Chapter 2

THE JOHN J. WELCH, JR., AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN ACQUISITION MANAGEMENT

2.1. Description of Award and Eligibility. This highly prestigious Air Force award for excellence in acquisition management is named after Mr. John J. Welch, Jr., Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition from October 1987 to April 1992, in recognition of his significant contributions.

2.1.1. This award focuses on management level achievement through a teamwork approach, rather than on individual recognition, and recognizes achievements during a calendar year. Teams comprised of Air Force military and/or civilian personnel at the program directorate level or below, demonstrating superior management in the acquisition area, are eligible to compete.

2.1.1.1. This award does not apply to the Air Force Secretariat or Air Staff personnel, the Air National Guard, civilian contractor personnel, or foreign military officers.

2.1.1.2. Air Force Program Executive Offices (AFPEO) are categorized and addressed as FOAs and are authorized to participate and submit in that regard. Each AFPEO will review their portfolios and determine if they have a program they wish to submit. Each AFPEO's nomination package will be approved at the AFPEO level, but also will be channeled through, and reviewed by the primary MAJCOM through which that team worked its project.

2.1.1.3. It is emphasized that the Welch Award is not designed to be an organizational award. Nor is it handled administratively as such. Each submitting team will have a proper team name or team title, to include the word "Team", entered in the appropriate identifying block of the AF Form 1206. Submissions which are clearly unit or organizational, e.g., having "Group", "Wing", "Directorate", "Unit", "Division", "Center", "Operations", "Agency", "Command", "Department", and similar title endings on the AF Form 1206 may be viewed as a unit or organizational submit and may be returned immediately without further action or consideration.

2.1.1.3.1. Teams in excess of thirty-five members must request prior approval from SAF/AQ in writing, with complete justification, well before the suspense date, before they will be allowed to submit.

2.1.2. The award consists of:

2.1.2.1. A large wall plaque with the winning team's name engraved on brass plate, on permanent display at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

2.1.2.2. A trophy and framed large certificate with citation for the winning MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU team display.

2.1.2.3. Citation certificates for each recipient team member.

2.1.3. Each team member is authorized to wear the Air Force Recognition Ribbon (military) or the Air Force Recognition Lapel Pin (civilian).

2.2. Evaluation Criteria. Examples of achievement criteria areas are:

- Developing improved or new management practices.

- Significantly increasing present or future operational effectiveness of a weapon system.
- Reducing cost or time in acquisition.
- Improving weapon system support and readiness for the Air Force.

2.2.1. Present short-term and long-term impact of achievements on the Air Force. Do not use cost savings or securing of contracts as sole reasons for the nomination.

2.3. Nomination Procedures. HQ AFMC may submit two nominee packages for the award. Other MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs may submit one nominee package.

2.3.1. Nomination packages will include:

2.3.1.1. A cover letter signed by the commander or equivalent. Multiple or forwarding cover letters will not be accepted.

2.3.1.2. An AF Form 1206 (April 95 version with reverse side) with no more than one typed page on plain bond paper attached, justifying the award. Use a bullet or point paper format, not running narrative. In completing the header portion of the AF Form 1206, use the following information:

- Award: "John J. Welch, Jr., Award for Excellence in Acquisition Management"
- Category: "Team"
- Award period: "For CY 199_"
- Rank/Name of Nominee: (Team name as it will appear on the award certificate)
- DAFSC/Duty Title: "N/A"
- MAJCOM: (the submitting MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU)
- Unit/Office Symbol/Street Address: (of submitting team. Include complete mailing address.)
- Base/Zip Code: (self-explanatory)
- Telephone: (self-explanatory)
- Rank/Name of Unit Commander: (self-explanatory)

2.3.1.3. A suggested citation, limited to three or four sentences, typed on plain bond paper summarizing the accomplishments. Opening and closing wording for the citation will be appropriate variations of standard Air Force-wide awards, and commensurate with the significance of the achievements being recognized.

2.3.1.4. Names, ranks, SSNs, assigned organizations, and complete mailing addresses of servicing Military Personnel Flights and Civilian Personnel Offices of all team members, listed on separate typed sheet(s) of plain bond paper. Ensure all team members are accounted for and recognized. No names will be added to the nomination package once it is submitted.

2.3.1.5. The list of team members' names, and all biographies of team personnel, if sent along with their nomination package, will remain sealed separately until after selection and approval processes are completed. Biographies and name lists will not be unsealed or reviewed during, or as part of the selection and approval processes. If biographies were not originally included in the winning package, they will be requested immediately following approval and notification, for background information prior to awards ceremony. Each individual biography must not exceed one single-spaced, typewritten page.

2.3.2. Classified material, faxes, memos forwarding multiple cover letters, photographs, sketches, personnel RIPs, published articles, charts, graphs, diagrams, staff summary sheets, interagency routing messages, forwarding memoranda, copies of messages, or other supplementary and supporting documents will not be accepted.

2.3.3. Forward nomination packages without punch holes, staples, or paper clips, through command channels to the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Acquisition), Executive Support Branch (SAF/AQE), 1060 Air Force Pentagon, Washington DC, 20330-1060, by the third Friday in February.

2.3.4. If the MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU does not submit nomination packages, send a letter or message to SAF/AQE advising of this.

2.4. Panel Formation and Selection Process. The evaluation panel reviews the nominee packages and submits a recommendation to the Secretary of the Air Force and the Air Force Chief of Staff for approval. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition chairs the evaluation panel which includes four other senior executive officials, or designated alternate, with extensive acquisition experience.

2.5. Award Presentation. SAF/AQ announces the award winner and arranges for the Secretary of the Air Force or Air Force Chief of Staff to present the award in the May-June time frame.

2.6. Travel and Accommodations for Military Members or Department of the Air Force Civilians. The winning team's organization(s) pays for transportation and accommodations for the award ceremony.

2.6.1. One guest per recipient may also attend. Authorize invitational travel. Refer to the Joint Federal Travel Regulation for instructions and limitations on travel reimbursements for dependents.

2.7. Award Publicity. The SAF/AQX Public Affairs unit will provide appropriate publicity after the awards presentation ceremony.

Chapter 3

OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO AIR FORCE COMPETITION AWARDS PROGRAM

3.1. Awards and Eligibility. See Table 3.1.

3.2. Nomination Responsibilities and Procedures. MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs will submit one nominee for each award identified in Table 3.1. Nomination package will include the front side of an AF Form 1206 (April 1995 automated version with reverse side), with the required supplemental information (see Figure 3.1) on the reverse side of the AF Form 1206. Submit accompanying citation for each nomination separately on plain bond paper. For the unit and MAJCOM/FOA/DRU awards, the Annual Competition Plan will constitute the award nomination package; a separate nomination package is not required. If not previously submitted to SAF/AQC, the Competition Plans for those units nominated for the unit award will be submitted to SAF/AQC by 20 January. All other nomination packages will be forwarded to the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Contracting), 1060 Air Force Pentagon, Washington DC 20330-1060, by 20 January.

3.3. Evaluation Criteria and Format. See Figure 3.1.

3.4. Evaluation Panel. The Air Force Competition Advocate (general officer or civilian equivalent) chairs the evaluation panel which includes the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Management Policy and Program Integration)--SAF/AQX, and the Director of Logistics, Plans and Programs--HQ USAF/LGX. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition approves panel recommendations.

3.5. Award Presentation. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition announces the award winners and presents the awards in conjunction with the Contracting Awards.

3.6. Transportation. The award winners' organizations pay for transportation and accommodations when the awards are presented.

VALUE ENGINEERING AWARDS PROGRAM

4.1. Awards and Eligibility. See Table 4.1. Awards recognize individuals and organizations whose exceptional use of Value Engineering (VE) techniques reduced costs without degrading quality promoted efficiency.

4.2. Nomination Responsibilities, Procedures, and format. SAF/AQ (to include Program Executive Offices), the Air Force Civil Engineer (AF/CE), MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs may submit two nominees in each award category. Submit team nominations where appropriate; however, limit the number of team members nominated to no more than three primary participants. Nomination packages will include a cover letter signed by the command section, Headquarters DCS, or Assistant Secretary, and a fact sheet described in Figure 4.1 with a narrative attached. Forward a copy of each nomination to SAF/AQR, 1060 Air Force Pentagon, Washington DC 20330-1060, by the last Friday in October.

4.3. Evaluation Criteria. Award selection considerations include: net savings produced; savings as a percentage of the affected overall budget; product, process, and service improvements; contribution to overall VE program growth; uniqueness of idea; cross-functional or inter-agency teaming; integration with other improvement initiatives or activities.

4.4. Evaluation Panel. The Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Research and Engineering or designated representative chairs the evaluation panel which includes senior military and civilian Air Force officials with extensive knowledge and experience in engineering and acquisition. The Secretary of the Air Force approves the panel's recommendations, and endorses and forwards selected nomination packages to the Department of Defense (DoD).

4.5. Award Presentation. Nominating MAJCOMs, FOAs, or DRUs present the Secretary of the air force Achievement Awards. DoD arranges a ceremony in Washington DC for those selected for DoD recognition. The award winner's organization pays for transportation and accommodations for awards ceremonies.
